

HQA 2020 QUESTIONS

We've heard stories of journalists being jailed for writing stories that are critical of their government. Why is freedom of the press important?

How can the African leadership collectively help in curbing global warming?

Many countries are experiencing an increase in migration. Do you think should limit the number of refugees allowed across their borders?

People that pageants are against the feminist movement. What is your take on this?

A lot of African countries are under the terrorism plague as we've heard in NEWS. What can Africa as a whole do to curb this menace?

What is the greatest issue you think this generation is facing and how can it be managed?

How has your role model helped you influence your community?

What is one law in your country you think that needs reviewing?

What advice would you give to children that are being bullied?

Sexual assault is now the order of the day in African countries with already existing laws against it. What more do you think the African government can do to curb this?

What adverse effect do you think technology is having on personal relationships?

A lot of people in the press see pageantry as a fancy name for prostitution. Convince them otherwise?

What is your take on the Same Sex Marriage Discrimination Law?

What is the thing about your home country that could attract tourists?

A lot of the MDGs lack provision for the woman healthcare. What healthcare issues do you think deserve a global consideration?

ALTERNATIVE QUESTIONS

What is your long term aspiration goal?

What about you sets you apart from other girls in this competition?

What has been your biggest failure and how has it moulded you into the woman you are today?